My listening angel heard the prayer, And caimly smiling, said: "If but touch thy silver'd hair Thy hasty wish hath sped."

"jut is there nothing in thy track, To bid thee fendly stay, while the swift seasons hurry back To find the wish'd for day?"

THE ORIGN OF LADIES' STAYS .- Stays ore first invented by a brutal butcher of the thirteenth century as a punishment for his wife. She was very loquacious; and finding nothing that would cure her. and hading nothing that would care her, the put a pair of stays on her in order to take away her breath, and so prevent, as he thought, her talking. This cruel pun-shment was inflicted by other husbands, till at last there was scarcely a wife in all Lendon who was not condenned to wear stays. The punishment became so universal at last that the ladies in their own defense made a fashion of it, and so it has entinued to the present day. "Now, young people," said a Professor of Natural History to his class—"now then, as to hens: A hen has the capaci-ty of laying just six hundred eggs, and no more; and she finishes the job in just five years. Now what is to be done with her after that?" "Cut off her head and sell her for a Spring chicken!" exclaimed an urchin whose father dealt in poultry.
